

To Whom This May Concern:

Please promote and support public policy practices that will encourage and expand the growth of LPFM radio and increase the vibrancy of localism throughout current broadcast signals. Less choice is not better and media consolidation is the antithesis of a healthy marketplace of ideas from which one can choose, innovate and create.

Sincerely,

Vince George